

Royal Decree No. 003
ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SANTANILLA FESTIVAL

By the Grace of the Sun and the Authority of the Crown,

Aligning with the 2024 Constitution, specifically Article XVII, Section 2, which mandates the promotion of cultural identity and societal enrichment, and recognizing the Santan as the official national flower under Article XIII, Section 4, I, King Lawrence I, hereby decree the establishment of the Santanilla Festival as a primary national observance of growth and unity.

Article I: Establishment

- Section 1 Creation. The Santanilla Festival is hereby established as a concentrated, three-week period of national refinement.
- Section 2 Symbolism. The festival shall honor the Santan flower, which represents the strength of the Kingdom through its natural tendency to grow in clusters.
- Section 3: Purpose. The primary purpose of this festival is to prove that the ultimate strength of Solquelum lies in the Cluster. It serves as a concentrated period of national and personal refinement, proving that while citizens start as individual buds, their highest radiance is achieved only when they interlock to form a singular, unbreakable crown of brilliance.

Article II: The Chronology of Sundays

- Section 1 Schedule. The festival shall be strictly observed across the first three Sundays of February, marking a mandatory shift in the Kingdom's focus:
1. The First Sunday - Santanita (The Budding). A period of quiet preparation and the sharpening of internal potential.
 2. The Second Sunday - Santanza (The Blooming). A transition from thought to motion where citizens shed protective shells and foster communal connections.
 3. The Third Sunday - Santanilla (The Grand Bloom). The triumphant climax of the cycle, representing total unity and the realization of collective power.

Article III: National Holiday Designation

Section 1 Designation. The third Sunday of February, known as Santanilla Sunday, is hereby declared an Official National Holiday throughout the Kingdom of Solquelum.

Section 2 Observance. This day shall be prioritized as a mandatory period of national rest and celebration, symbolizing the "Spherical Crown of Brilliance" formed by the unified citizenry.

Article IV: Implementation and Funding

Section 1 Governance. The organization of the festival shall be overseen by the Festival Council, which the Crown may appoint or dissolve at its discretion.

Section 2 Resources. The Kingdom shall allocate necessary resources, including funding and logistical support, to ensure the success of the festival in all provinces.

Article V: Commencement

This decree shall take effect immediately and shall be implemented in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Kingdom of Solquelum.

Given under our hand and seal, this 1st of February, 2026.

King Lawrence de Solquelum
King of the Kingdom of Solquelum
