

Royal Decree No. 006
ESTABLISHING THE ROYAL LYCEUM OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

By the Grace of the Sun and the Authority of the Crown,

Pursuant to Article XVII, Section 1 of the 2024 Constitution, which commits the Kingdom to "fostering holistic development for its citizens" and acknowledging the mandates of Sections 3 and 5 of the same Article to support scientific research and educational programs and further exercising the authorities granted under Article XIX to structure the Kingdom's permanent institutions during the Transitory Government period, I, King Lawrence I, hereby ordain the following framework for the premiere educational and research institution of the realm.

Article I: Nature and Mandate

- Section 1 Premiere Status. The Royal Lyceum of Arts and Sciences is hereby established as the premiere educational institution of the Kingdom, spanning arts, sciences, mathematics, and humanities to ensure the holistic development of the citizenry.
- Section 2 State Supervision. The Lyceum shall remain under the direct supervision of the government regarding its strategic alignment with national interests but shall maintain absolute independence in its internal handling of academic and philosophical affairs.

Article II: Governance Hierarchy

- Section 1 The President of the Lyceum. The President is the Chief Executive Officer responsible for the overall strategic direction, research output, and administration of the institution. The President answers directly to the Crown.
- Section 2 The Vice President for Internal Affairs (VPIA). The VPIA manages all internal operations, including the oversight of Royal Fellows, coordination of research divisions, maintenance of infrastructure, and enforcement of internal discipline and rules.
- Section 3 The Vice President for External Affairs (VPEA). The VPEA handles the Lyceum's relationship with the outside world, including coordinating research with the National Convention on Cultural

Heritage (NCCH), managing relations with the broader government, and overseeing the publication of findings in the Solquelum Gazette

Article III: Board of Regents

- Section 1 Composition. The Board of Regents serves as the supreme governing council of the Lyceum. It is chaired by the President and includes both Vice Presidents along with senior appointed Royal Fellows.
- Section 2 Powers. The Board is empowered to vote on internal policies, determine research tracks, and establish institutional bylaws.

Article IV: Protected Autonomy and State Oversight

- Section 1 Direct Funding. The Solquelum Assembly shall provide direct, non-discretionary funding to the Lyceum from the national budget.
- Section 2 Fiscal Supervision. The government retains the absolute right to audit these funds via state audit protocols to ensure fiscal compliance
- Section 3 Campus Sovereignty. Within the Lyceum, the Board of Regents is independent. The State shall not interfere with research, philosophical debates, or internal operations, provided the institution adheres to the 2024 Constitution and the Penal Code

Article V: Transitory Governance Procedures

- Section 1 Chain of Command. Until the national transitory state is formally declared complete by royal decree, the Royal Lyceum shall remain under the direct executive authority of the Crown.
- Section 2 Appointments. During this phase, the King reserves the right to directly appoint or replace the President and Vice Presidents to ensure institutional alignment with the foundational building blocks of the state.
- Section 3 Admissions. Formal student admissions shall commence only upon the official conclusion of the national transitory state.

Article VII: Commencement

Section 1 Effectivity. This Decree shall take effect immediately upon its publication in the Solquelum Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal, this 5th of June, 2026.

King Lawrence de Solquelum
King of the Kingdom of Solquelum
